Receiving information from RaTS Ltd
RaTS Ltd do take the protection of your personal data seriously. We will never share your data with third parties or sell your personal data. We would like to stay in touch to bring you news and updates about what's on. The information will contain content about our productions and other events, theatre news, theatre trips, social events and everything else that's going on at the Oasthouse Theatre - this is known legally as 'direct marketing'. We can send you this information either by email or post. Our preferred method of communicating with you is by email because we can update you more regularly, and it's quicker and cheaper than sending the information by post. In the event that you allow your membership to lapse we may continue to send you our 'direct marketing' by email. However, you can unsubscribe from our email notifications at any time.
Please mark below how we should send you our direct marketing information:

I understand that the data I have provided will be used to communicate with me in relation to the membership of RaTS Ltd. Limited contact details such as name, email address and telephone number may be shared with some members to facilitate communication on activities.

I understand that the Society is incorporated as a Limited Company and that ALL MEMBERS could be liable for an amount, not exceeding £2, in the event of the dissolution of the Company.

I also understand that I am not a member until my application has been approved by the Executive Committee, and that my name must be displayed on the prospective members list at the Theatre for at least seven days before consideration of my membership application at a full Committee Meeting.

I agree to abide by the Society's Articles of Association (available on request) and Rules as stipulated by the Executive Committee.

I confirm my age is not below 18 years old.

I understand that payment of the membership fee is due within one calendar month of the application being approved. Any payments made in advance will be held until the application is approved. In the event that the application is declined any fee paid in advance will be repaid within one calendar month.
